DETAILED ACTION

Applicant(s) Response to Official Action

- [1] The response filed on January 31, 2007 has been entered and made of record.

Response to Arguments

- [2] Presented arguments have been fully considered but are held unpersuasive. Examiner's response to the presented arguments follows below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Summary of Arguments:

Regarding claims 1 and 12, applicant argues the following:

1. Edges, as shown in T1, are not perceptually relevant boundaries and further cites portions from the specification on how to interpret perceptually relevant boundaries [page 2, paras. 1-2].

Applicant requests the withdrawal of the rejection.

Examiner's Response:

Examiner respectfully disagrees. Regarding claims 1 and 12, Examiner contends the following:

1. First, applicants attempt define claim terms through arguments (i.e. estoppel). However, guidelines set forth in the MPEP (see MPEP 2111) favors, when possible, incorporation of such arguments as amendment to the claim.
 - See also In re Morris, 127 F.3d 1048, 1054-55, 44 USPQ2d 1023, 1027-28 (Fed. Cir. 1997) (The court held that the PTO is not required, in the course of prosecution, to interpret claims in applications in the same manner as a court would interpret claims in an infringement suit. Rather, the “PTO applies to verbiage of the proposed claims the broadest reasonable meaning of the words in their ordinary usage as they would be understood by one of ordinary skill in the art, taking into account whatever enlightenment by way of definitions or otherwise that may be afforded by the written description contained in applicant’s specification.”).

Art Unit: 2624

- See MPEP 2111, "Applicant always has the opportunity to amend the claims during prosecution, and broad interpretation by the examiner reduces the possibility that the claim, once issued, will be interpreted more broadly than is justified".

Hence, the Examiner invites the applicants to incorporate these arguments into the claims in order to receive proper consideration.

2. Second, nowhere in the claims is a threshold/cutoff defined for what constitutes as “perceptually relevant”. While a specification may define multiple such thresholds, but such limitations cannot be imported into the claims when the claims do not explicitly call for it. Hence, one can view all edges to be perceptually relevant boundaries as disclosed by T1.

Accordingly, Examiner maintains the rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102 and 103

- [3] All rejections under 102 and 103 made in the previous non-final office action (dated 10/31/2006) are incorporated by reference.

Conclusion

[4] THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
